

Carpathian Pearl winery

Šenkvice, Slovakia

© Ľubo Stacho

ARCHITEKTUR

Ľubomír Sádecký

FERTIGSTELLUNG

2007

SAMMLUNG

Architekturarchiv Slowakei

PUBLIKATIONSdatum

23. April 2008

Carpathian Pearl is a winery farm building on long family tradition. The former cooperative winery undergoes a reconstruction and addition of new wine production zones. The most intensive intervention takes place at the central fermentation hall. It is spatially and architecturally consistent and high-tech elements give it characteristic industrial look in contrast with the nature of the traditional wooden barrels. The element of wooden beams of the roof dominates the production hall interior. Ján Ilkovi?

© Ľubo Stacho

© Ľubo Stacho

© Ľubo Stacho

Carpathian Pearl winery

DATENBLATT

Architektur: Ľubomír Sádecký

Fotografie: Ľubo Stacho

Maßnahme: Erweiterung, Umbau

Funktion: Landwirtschaft

Fertigstellung: 2007

PUBLIKATIONEN

ILKOVIĽ Ján.: Stratégia adície. ARCH 2007, Ľ. 11. s.16- 19.